Oral History of Triangle Fire Survivor [audio]

Interviewee: Pauline Pepe

Source information: Pauline Pepe was a machine operator who did tucking for the Triangle Waist Company. She worked on the eighth floor of the Asch Building, and was a survivor of the Triangle fire March 25, 1911. She was interviewed by unidentified people, March 19, 1986.

Note to teachers: Common Core standards require students analyze multimedia source material. Please have your students listen to the audio, and only use the transcript as a scaffold if necessary.

Alternate link:
http://www.ilr.cornell.edu/trianglefire/primary/survivorInterviews/PaulinePepe.html